GENEVA COLLEGE, 13th August, 1849.

This being the day fixed by the Statutes organizing the House of Convocation, for the annual meeting thereof, the House was called to order by the Dean, the Rev. Henry Gregory, D. D.; whereupon, the following members were reported by the Secretary, as present:—

Rev. Henry Gregory, D. D., Dean; Peter M. Dox, Secretary; Professor Henry L. Low, Treasurer; Archibald C. Powell, Charles Collins, Mahlon D. Ogden, Anthony Schuyler, John Palmer McGregor, Edward R. Dox, John N. Whiting, Abraham Lawrence, Paul Fenimore Cooper, Bartholomew Skaats, Edward Floyd DeLancey, Clarence A. Seward, Rev. Walter Ayrault, Samuel H. Verplanck, Joseph M. Clark, Rev. Almon Gregory, Samuel R. Welles, E. M. Griffith, Charles Stebbins, William A. Matson, and Charles Foot.

The record of proceedings of the first meeting of the House under the statutes of organization, held 2d August, 1848, was read by the Secretary, and approved by the House. The statutes of organization were also read for the information of the House.

On motion of the Secretary, a committee, consisting of Mr. Archibald C. Powell, Mr. Charles Collins, and Mr. E. F. DeLancey, was appointed to report to the House, at an adjourned meeting, the names of members to constitute the Board of Examiners for the ensuing year, agreeably to the 5th section of the statutes of organization.

On motion of Mr. Schuyler, the Dean appointed a committee, consisting of Mr. Schuyler, Rev. Mr. Ayrault and Mr. Whiting, to prepare and report Bye-Laws, for the consideration of the House at an adjourned meeting.

The following gentlemen, being eligible to the House under the statutes, were then elected members, to wit:—

Hon. Samuel A. Foot, Rev. T. F. Wardwell, Rev. James A. Bolles, D. D., Cotton M. Cruttenden, Edward Cooper, Rev. James D. Carder, Rev. Kendrick Metcalf, Rev. Montgomery Schuyler, Rev. William Shelton, D. D., Hon. Samuel Nelson, Rev. William H. Paddock, Rev. George B. Eastman, Hon. J. Wright Gordon, Rev. David Pise, Rev. John V. Van Ingen, D. D., Horace Webster, L. L. D., Rev. William D. Wilson, D. D., Douglass Boardman, Alfred B. Street, Rev. Samuel H. Norton, and Daniel McCarty.

On motion of Professor Low, a committee was appointed to select from a catalogue of Books prepared by Tutor Clark, such works as should appear to be most needed in the College Library, with the view of inviting members to aid in procuring them. Prof. Low and Mr. Clark were appointed.

The House of Convocation then adjourned to meet on the 14th inst., at 3 o'clock, P. M., in Trinity Church, Geneva, for the purpose of hearing the annual address.

COMMENCEMENT DAY--14th August, 1849.

The House of Convocation met in Trinity Church, Geneva, pursuant to adjournment, the Dean presiding--whereupon Mr. Charles Collins delivered the annual address, pursuant to his appointment as Orator of the House; there being present at its delivery, in addition to members, the Rt. Rev. W. H. De Lancey, Bishop of Western New-York, with many of the Clergy, and numerous other persons.

After the address, the House proceeded to business. The following members, not present at the previous meeting, were in attendance:--Rev. Benjamin Hale, D. D., Horace Webster, L. L. D., Rev. John F. Ernst, Dr. T. Rush Spencer, William T. Gibson, Rev. Henry Stanley, Rev. James A. Bolles, D. D., Rev. George B. Eastman, Rev. Gardner M. Skinner, Daniel McCarty, Rev. Seth Davis, Rev. Mason Gallagher, Gideon M. Mundy, Wm. M. Crosby, and Rev. T. F. Wardwell.

Mr. Schuyler, from the committee appointed for that purpose, reported a code of Bye-Laws, which, after discussion and amendment, were adopted as follows:--

ARTICLE I.

Of the time of meeting, and order of business.

SEC. 1. The meeting of the House shall be held the day before the College Commencement in each year.

SEC. 2. The order of business at each regular meeting shall be as follows:—

1. Reading of the minutes of the last meeting.
2. The registry of the names of the members present.
3. The appointment of new members by viva voce vote.
4. The report of the Standing Committee.
5. The reports of special committees previously appointed.
6. The appointment of standing and special committees, and miscellaneous business.
7. The election of officers, standing committee, and orator.

SEC. 3. In case any officer is absent from any meeting, his place shall be filled, pro-tempore, by the House, on the nomination of any member.

ARTICLE II.

Of Elections.

SEC. The officers named in the Statutes, and an Orator and substitute, shall be elected on the day preceding each Commencement in every year, by ballot unless dispensed with by the unanimous vote of the House of Convocation.

SEC. 2. A plurality of the votes given shall elect the officers for whom such votes shall be given respectively.

ARTICLE III.

Of officers and their duties and powers.

SEC. 1. The Standing Committee shall consist of seven members, of whom the President of the College, the Dean and Secretary of the House shall be members. The Dean shall be chairman of the committee.

SEC. 2. The Standing Committee shall, through its chairman, report at each meeting, and shall make such suggestions and recommendations as they shall deem appropriate.

SEC. 3. The Examiners shall be appointed by the Standing Committee, and the number of Examiners shall be determined by the committee.

SEC. 4. A list of the attendants at each regular meeting shall be prepared under the supervision of the Secretary, which with a catalogue of the members of the House of Convocation, the reports of the committees, and the proceedings of the meeting, shall be published in pamphlet form, together with the Statutes, a copy of which shall be sent by the Secretary to each member of the House of Convocation.

SEC. 5. The Standing Committee are hereby invested with such powers as are conferred by the Statutes, and are not otherwise conferred by the Bye-Laws.

SEC. 6. The annual Oration shall be delivered at such time and place as the Standing Committee shall determine.

SEC. 7. Each member of the House of Convocation shall pay into the Treasury the sum of fifty cents, to defray the contingent expenses of the House of Convocation.

The foregoing Bye-Laws, on motion, it was decided should take effect from and after the 15th August, 1849.

Mr. Powell, from the committee appointed to recommend to the House suitable persons to constitute the Board of Examiners for the ensuing year, submitted a list of names, and recommended their election.

On motion, the report of the committee was agreed to, and the persons therein recommended for Examiners were elected by the Convocation. (See Appendix B.)

Professor Henry L. Low, from the committee appointed for that purpose, having reported a list of works more immediately needed in the College Library, on motion of Mr. Schuyler, it was

Resolved, That the catalogue of books recommended by the committee, be published with the proceedings of this meeting.— (See Appendix D.)

On motion of Mr. E. F. De Lancey, it was also resolved, that a committee of three be appointed, to report, at the next annual meeting, a plan for the increase of the College Library, and that, in the meantime, each member of the House present to the Library such books as he may be able to obtain.

E. F. De Lancey, Rev. Dr. Wilson and P. M. Dox were appointed the committee.

On motion of Mr. De Lancey, the unanimous thanks of the members were presented to Charles Collins, Esq., for the interesting and admirable address delivered before the House, and a copy thereof was requested for publication, and also a copy to be deposited among the archives of the College.

The House then proceeded to elect the officers of the Convocation for the ensuing year, with the following result, viz :—

Rev. Henry Gregory, D. D., Dean—Syracuse.

Peter M. Dox, Secretary—Geneva.

Rev. Professor Henry L. Low, Treasurer—Geneva.

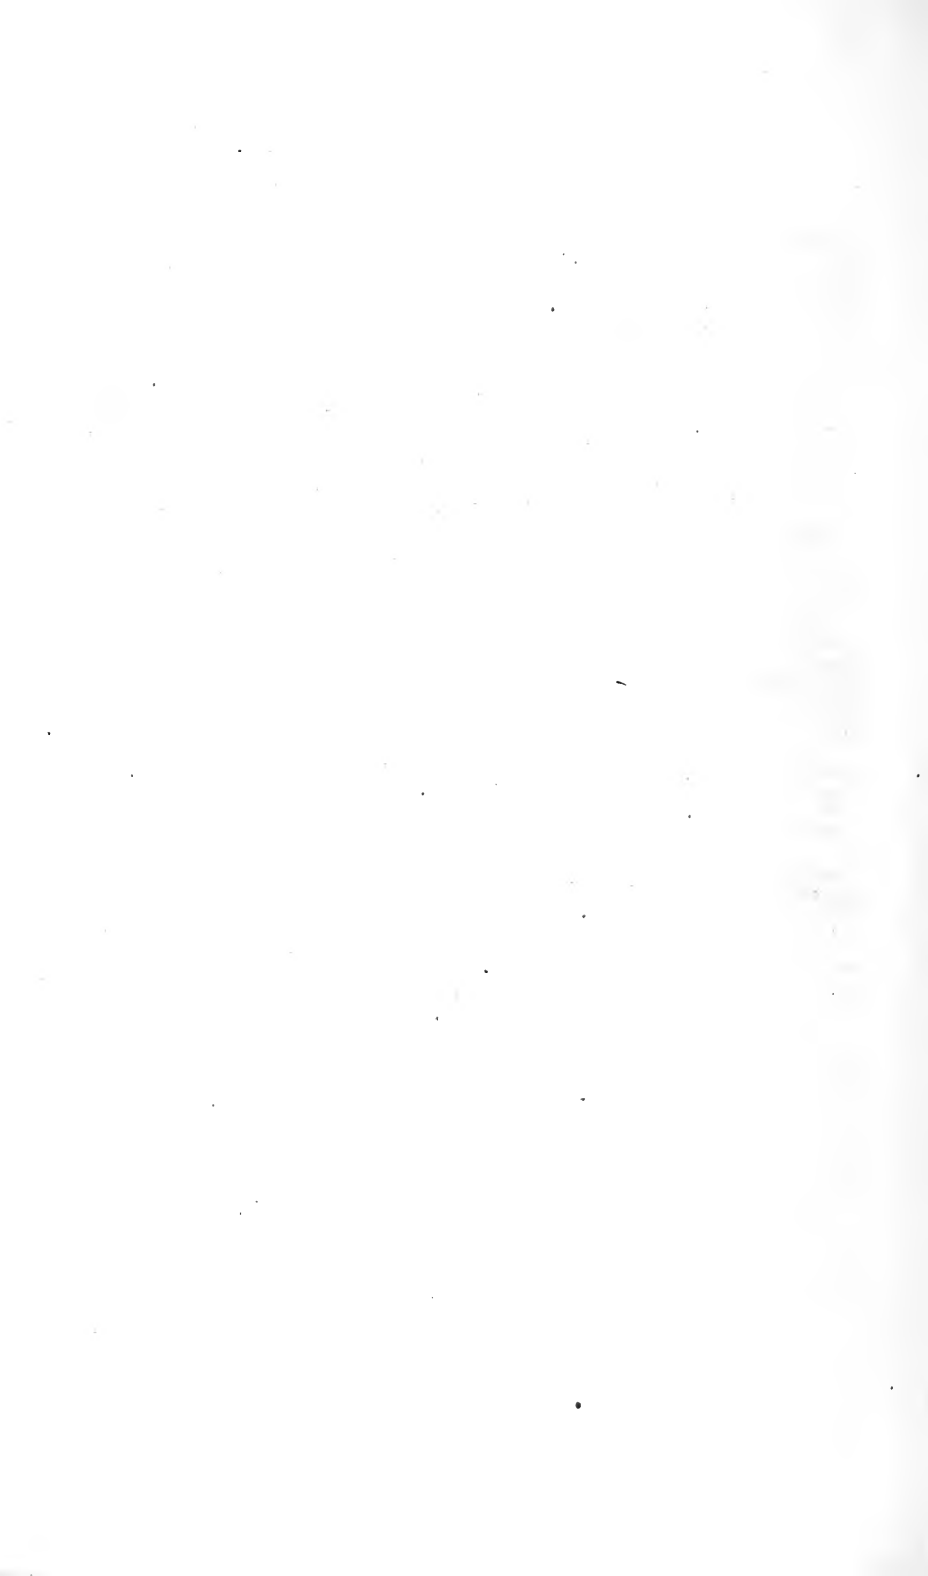

The following gentlemen were elected members of the Standing Committee, to wit :—

William T. Gibson, Esq., Rev. Walter Ayrault, John N. Whiting, Esq., Anthony Schuyler, Esq.; who, together with the Dean and Secretary of the House of Convocation, and the President of Geneva College, constitute the Standing Committee.

The House then appointed Peter M. Dox, Orator for the next annual meeting, and William T. Gibson, Esq., as substitute; and then the House of Convocation adjourned sine die.

HENRY GREGORY, D. D., Dean.

PETER M. DOX, Secretary.

APPENDIX A.

STATUTES OF ORGANIZATION,

ADOPTED BY THE TRUSTEES OF GENEVA COLLEGE.

WHEREAS, in the opinion of this Board the prosperity of Geneva College would be promoted by the adoption of such measures as are calculated to secure the active co-operation of its graduated members in its behalf,—it is therefore, in order to secure such co-operation, enacted as follows:—

SECTION 1. The Alumni of Geneva College are hereby constituted and declared to be a House of Convocation, with power to make bye-laws and choose officers for their own government; and according to said laws, to assemble from time to time, to consult and advise for the interests and benefit of the College, and to exercise such other powers and privileges as may be conceded to them by this corporation.

SECTION 2. All persons who have received honorary or ad eundem degrees at this College; all who are, or have been, members of the Faculty of the College, and all Alumni of other Colleges who have received degrees in course at this College, are declared to be eligible to the House of Convocation, by a vote of the members thereof at any regular meeting.

SECTION 3. The officers of the House of Convocation shall consist of a Presiding officer, to be styled a Dean; of a Secretary, a Treasurer, and a Standing Committee.

SECTION 4. It shall be the duty of the House of Convocation to meet regularly at the College on the day preceding the commencement of the College, in each year. It shall also hold such special meetings as may, from time to time, be appointed by the Standing Committee of the Convocation.

SECTION 5. The House of Convocation at each annual meeting thereof, shall, either directly or by its Standing Committee, appoint one of its members as Orator, to address the Convocation next succeeding such appointment. It shall also appoint annually, at a regular meeting, a committee from its own body, of such members as may by the Convocation be deemed proper, to be styled a Board of Examiners, whose duty it shall be: 1st, to attend the regular examinations of the College classes, when required; and 2d, to report concerning such examinations to the trustees of the College, and such report to embody such suggestions as to the Board of Examiners may seem necessary for the improvement of the instruction or discipline of the College; such report before being presented to the Trustees, to be submitted to a joint meeting of the Faculty of the College and the Board of Examiners, at which joint meeting the President shall preside. 3d, The members of the Board of Examiners shall have power individually to examine and decide upon the qualifications of applicants for admission to the first term of the Freshman class in the College; and the certificate, in due form, after such examination, of a member of the Board of Examiners, that such applicant is qualified, shall be prima facie evidence of qualification, and entitle such applicant to admission to the Freshman class, on his complying in other respects with the existing rules and bye-laws governing the admission of students to the College.

SECTION 6. In addition to such other powers as are hereby conferred upon the House of Convocation, it shall have power to endow and institute Professorships, Fellowships and Scholarships, and to make arrangements for enlarging the Library, Apparatus and Cabinets of the College, to the use of which it shall be entitled upon the authority of the Board of Trustees. It shall also have power to recommend, from time to time, to the Board of Trustees, through the committee on Honors appointed from the Trustees, candidates for the several honorary or other degrees.

SECTION 7. For the exercise of the foregoing and such other powers as may be granted hereafter, this statute shall be to the members of the House of Convocation herein specified, their sufficient constitution.

Geneva College, 1st August, 1848.

APPENDIX B.

BOARD OF EXAMINERS.

Appointed under the 5th section of the Statutes, by the Convocation, August 14, 1849. The last four were subsequently added by the Standing Committee.

[NOTE.—The foregoing List is, of necessity, brief and very imperfect. It is meant to indicate a few of those works which are more immediately wanted for the College Library. Now that the endowment of the Hobart Professorship is completed, it would be a noble effort on the part of the members of the House of Convocation, to endow the Library. Will not each one, before another commencement, either present at least one Work, or obtain its gift from some friend of the College?]
